Primary Languages Update – September - October 2024

ALL Primary Languages Conference Online

The fifth annual ALL Primary Languages Conference Online will take place on Saturday 16th November 2024 9.00am-3.00pm. The theme of the conference is 'Making a difference'. The invited speakers, who are all involved in the delivery of a high-quality primary languages education, will share how they aim to make a difference through: SEND support; digital empowerment; culture and creativity; transformative transition; supporting non-specialists; using AI; the international dimension. . Rachel Hawkes will deliver the keynote speech. To find out more about the presenters and their presentations, please look at the programme. Here is the link: www.tinyurl.com/confprog24 The price of tickets remains the same as in previous years; £5 for ALL members, ECTs and trainees, £25 for non-members. It is possible to join and leave the conference when you want. The presentations will be recorded and will be available until January 2025 to anyone who purchased a ticket.

Free Japanese Taster Sessions

The Japan Foundation can arrange for a volunteer to visit your school and introduce your students to the Japanese languages. It would be a taster session for schools not currently teaching the language and culture. Schools are asked to pay for the travel costs of the volunteer, Find out more here PowerPoint Presentation \(jpf.org.uk\)

Funded visit to a German school

UK German connection is offering a grant of £1000 to fund an opportunity for UK teachers to visit a German school in person for one or two weeks in 2024-25. Find out more here Professional Enrichment Programme – Professionals & Parents \(ukgermanconnection.org\)

The Languages Show

This will take place once again online on the 8th to 10th November. It consists of 3 days of presentations on a wide range of themes – many of them aimed at Primary Languages Teachers. I will be giving a presentation this year on the Sunday morning on the subject of teaching phonics in language lessons.
